

Prague's buyers and sellers market for the Expat community

Expats.cz presents a live market place for members of the international community, to buy and sell their goods!

Date May 11, 2013
Time 10:00am - 15:00pm
Where Holešovická Tržnice, Main Square.

Tell your friends about it and save the date!

The International Market is a fun day event which brings together buyers and sellers from all over the community. Our 5th market will take place at Holešovická Tržnice – in the Main Square.

You're sure to find a bargain!

Entry to the market is FREE. Seller admission costs 300Kc.

Why Go to the International Market?

This is an opportunity to buy and sell used goods from the international community. There will be food and drinks provided by restaurants from the Prague community, also a specialty food market with international packaged foods sold.
